If you answered Yes to any of the questions above, you should consult with the UA Office of Counsel. After such consultation, it may be determined that an Export Control issue exists. In such event, the Principal Investigator Must Complete Technical Review Part II.

PART II: TECHNICAL REVIEW
(To be completed by Principal Investigator)

To All Principal Investigators: The Office of Research has determined that the sponsored research agreement for the project identified above contains provisions that may require University compliance with export control laws and regulations that are issued by the Department of Commerce, State and/or Treasury. A final determination of the application of those regulations to this particular project depends on whether the research falls within a category of technology the government has determined raises particular issues of national security or economic interest. As the Principal Investigator for the project, you are the person most qualified to decide if your research falls within covered areas. Please note that your project should be reviewed periodically as the applicability of export control regulations could change based on the direction of the research, changes in the status of controlled information and technology or changes in the law and regulations.

Procedures: In collaboration with the Associate Vice President for Research (AVPR), you will have to review descriptions of technologies that are controlled by the International Traffic in Arms (ITAR) or Export Administration Regulations (EAR), and review the regulations issued by the Office of Foreign Assets control (OFAC) and decide if the subject matter involved in this falls within the scope of any of these regulations. These regulations are available through links provided on the Office of Research website or in hard copy format in the Office of Research. If you have any questions, contact Carpantato Myles, Research Compliance Officer, at 348-5746 or cmyles@fa.ua.edu.
